HOUSE BILL NO. 184 ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. Jacks, by unanimous consent, moved to reconsider the vote by which House bill No. 184 was finally passed.

The motion to reconsider prevailed.

The Speaker then laid House bill No. 184 before the House on its third reading and final passage.

Mr. Jacks offered the following (committee) amendment to the bill:

Amend House bill No. 184, by striking out all below the words "A bill to be entitled," and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"An Act to make appropriation to pay the widow of Leroy Derryberry, killed while in the service of the Texas State Highway Department by an employe of the State Highway Department by a collision of their trucks, and declaring an emergency."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That there be and is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury to the credit of the State Highway Department of Texas not already appropriated, the sum of twenty-five hundred ($2500) dollars for Mrs. Gladys Derryberry, the widow of Leroy Derryberry, who was accidentally killed while in the service of the State Highway Department by an employe of the State Highway Department, by a collision of their trucks while on actual duty on the tenth of June, A. D. 1924, in Dallas county, Texas.

Sec. 2. Upon presentation of claim to Comptroller of Public Accounts, he shall draw his warrant on the State Treasury in favor of Mrs. Gladys Derryberry, for the sum of twenty-five hundred ($2500) dollars, which warrant shall be paid by the Treasurer out of any funds on hand belonging to the State Highway Department of Texas not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 3. The fact that Mrs. Gladys Derryberry, widow of Leroy Derryberry, has had no means of livelihood since the death of her husband and is in indigent circumstances and might become a public charge, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity demanding that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and it is enacted that said rule be so suspended and this bill take effect from and after its passage.

The amendment was adopted.
